No personal data is gathered automatically by Cllr Sherwin when someone visits Burbage Parish Council website.

Use of cookies

The Burbage Parish Council website may use cookies from time to time but only to make your web experience better. I do not track individual web visitors.

Sharing Your Information

I sometimes need to share the personal information I process with other organisations. Where this is necessary I am required to comply with all aspects of the Data Protection laws. What follows is a description of the types of organisations I will share some of the personal information I process with, where necessary, for one or more reasons.

- elected representatives and other holders of public office
- landlords
- local and central government
- statutory law enforcement agencies and investigating bodies
- political organisations
- the media
- healthcare, social and welfare advisers or practitioners
- suppliers
- the subject of complaints

I will share your data with organisations I have a contract with in order to provide the service.

I will not sell your personal data to any other external organisation or individual.

I will not share it with any other third party unless required to do so by law e.g. law enforcement agencies such as the Police, HMRC, Immigration, the Information Commissioner's Office etc.

Where I store your data

Transfer of data by email or as part of online surveys may mean your data is transferred outside of the EU via a contract we have in place with our processor or with your consent.

How long will we keep your data?

Casework will be stored securely for 7 years.

Complaints or queries

I encourage people to bring it to my attention if they think that my collection or use of information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or if there has been a personal data breach. I would also welcome any suggestions for improving my procedures.

If you remain unhappy with how I have dealt with your complaint, you may contact the Information Commissioner's Office at www.ico.org.uk

Access to personal information

You can find out if I hold any of your personal data by making a 'subject access request'. If I do hold information about you I will:

- give you a description of it;
- tell you why we are holding it;
- tell you who it could be disclosed to;
- tell you where we got it from; and
- let you have a copy of the data.

To make a request for any data I may hold on you, you can email the address given. There is no charge to submit a request. I may only refuse if it is manifestly unfounded or excessive. I have a month to answer you.

If I do hold information about you, you can ask me to

- correct any mistakes;
- delete data I hold on you that I no longer have a legitimate need to use;
- restrict the use of the data temporarily if you think it is wrong or I should not have it;
- stop using your data that does not have a legal or contractual obligation;
- ask for any data that you have provided to me or I have observed, that has been automatically processed, under consent or contract, to be exported to another company or yourself, in a machine-readable format. I currently do not undertake any automated processing of your data; and

- prevent any fully automated decisions involving your data. I do not currently use any fully automated decision-making techniques.
